OUR PILLARS

Our new strategic plan directly links our organizational outcomes with the new funding framework. The three pillars were considered as part of our strategic planning process.

PILLAR 1

Leadership/Volunteer Development:

Support and promote capacity
for leaders and volunteers.

PILLAR 2

Awareness and Connection:

Improve information access,
seek partnerships and
network extension.

PILLAR 3

Governance/Operational Excellence:

Ensure governance and operational performance and accountability that is based on identified criteria.

OUR STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

Enhancing volunteerism through skill-building and program support

Outcomes:

- Community groups are equipped with the tools to effectively recruit, retain, and recognize volunteers, strengthening their organizational capacity.
 - Community groups enhance their volunteer engagement practices, leading to more meaningful, sustained involvement from volunteers.

Creating accessible opportunities for leadership growth

Outcomes:

- Community leaders develop practical skills and gain relevant knowledge that they actively apply within their own communities to strengthen local initiatives and capacity.
 - Groups develop programs that respond to community needs.

Amplifying district awareness and community connection

Outcomes:

- Community leaders and groups have a clear understanding of the district's role and services, enabling increased engagement.
 - The district has stronger and more diverse partnerships, and community connections are established, enhancing collaboration, resource sharing, and collective impact across the region.

Strengthening long-term evaluation to ensure impact and accountability

Outcomes:

- The board consistently makes informed, strategic decisions based on relevant data, community input, and organizational priorities.
- The district demonstrates measurable impact and responds effectively to southeast community needs.

South East Sport, Culture & Recreation District would like to acknowledge the First Nations, the Métis and all of the peoples across southeastern Saskatchewan who share a history and deep connection with this land. We dedicate ourselves to moving forward in partnership with Indigenous communities in a spirit of reconciliation and collaboration.
